

Galatians 3:23-28 ²³ Now before faith came, we were imprisoned and guarded under the law until faith would be revealed. ²⁴ Therefore the law was our disciplinarian until Christ came, so that we might be justified by faith. ²⁵ But now that faith has come, we are no longer subject to a disciplinarian, ²⁶ for in Christ Jesus you are all children of God through faith. ²⁷ As many of you as were baptized into Christ have clothed yourselves with Christ. ²⁸ There is no longer Jew or Greek, there is no longer slave or free, there is no longer male and female; for all of you are one in Christ Jesus.

You know that on earth families come in various shapes and sizes. Different families have different rules. Draw a line between the rule in the middle and the family which might use it.

a. In this family we are in the house before midnight on weekends

b. In this family we don't leave the house without our cane.

c. In this family we hold hands to cross the street.

d. In this family we save our shoes to wear on Sunday.

e. In this family, bedtime is 7pm.

f. In this family we wear our boots all the time.

Paul says that the rules God made before Jesus came were good because they helped people live good lives. But they also separated people into different groups, with some groups thinking they were better loved by God than others.

What has happened since Jesus came? (Complete this verse using the one at the top of page 1)

“There is no longer _____ or _____, there is no longer _____ or _____, there is no longer _____ and _____; for all of you are 1 in Christ Jesus.”

Because of Jesus we are all adopted as God’s children, so the only rule we use is to love each other. Draw a part of the great big family of God in the heart below. Draw as many types of people as you can think of. One has been given.
